

10th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

CALL TO VIRTUAL CONVENTION 2020

1. New Process due to Public Health Emergency.

As a result of the current Covid-19 virus public health emergency, it is not possible for the Democratic Party of Virginia (DPVA) to implement the national convention delegate selection process as set forth in the Virginia Delegate Selection Plan (DSP) and the Call to State Convention. Likewise, it is not possible for the 10th Congressional District Democratic Committee (CDDC) to implement the convention process set forth in the Call and Rules the CDDC adopted. The CDDC is committed to implementing a fair and open alternative process for the election of national convention delegates and alternates and doing other necessary party business. This Call to Convention Supersedes the prior Calls and Rules issued by the CDDC.

As set forth in the DPVA Statewide Call to Caucus, issued March 21, 2020 (available at <https://vademocrats.org/delegateselection/>, and attached hereto), the initial step of the Virginia delegate selection process – the presidential primary – occurred on March 3, 2020, and pursuant to the DSP, those results have been used to allocate state and national convention delegates among the eligible candidates. The Statewide Call to Caucus set forth a revised process for the city/county caucuses to elect state convention delegates and alternates using virtual caucuses.

The next step in the delegate selection process is for those delegates elected at city/county caucuses within 10CDDC to participate in a Congressional District Convention to elect National Convention Delegates and conduct other Party business. Due to the current health emergency, the 10th Congressional District Convention will be conducted virtually and not in person.

2. Call.

Pursuant to the authority provided by the Virginia Democratic Party of Virginia, the 10th District Convention will convene at Noon on Saturday, May 9th. State Delegates, Alternates, and Guests will be able to view the Convention opening session on the internet. The opening session will include addresses by distinguished guests and an explanation of the voting process by which State Delegates will vote for National Convention Delegates and conduct other business. Following the opening session, State Delegates will engage in online voting between 1:00 PM on Saturday, May 9th and 7:00 PM on Sunday, May 10th.

3. Incorporated Documents.

All appropriate provisions of the Virginia Democratic Party Plan, the Delegate Selection Plan for the 2020 Democratic National Convention Plan, and the Call to the 2020 Virginia State Democratic Convention, as those documents have been revised, are incorporated into this Call by reference, and made a part hereof. The emergency delegate selection procedures will be implemented subject to the approval of the Democratic National Committee and the Democratic Party of Virginia.

4. Purpose.

The purpose of the 10th Congressional District Convention shall be:

- A. To select six (6) National Convention Delegates and one (1) Alternate to the 2020 Democratic National Convention;

7. Allocation of State/District Convention Delegates and Alternates

Delegates and alternates elected at county or city caucuses or convention shall serve as delegates and alternates to both the Congressional District and State Convention (“State Delegates and Alternates”). There shall be elected 2,000 State Delegates and 500 State Alternates to the State Convention. The apportionment of State Delegates and Alternates among counties and cities is detailed in the State Convention Call, as determined by the State Central Committee, based on a formula giving equal weight to the total population and to the average of the Democratic vote for President in 2016, Governor in 2017, and US Senate in 2018.

The 10th Congressional Democratic District apportionment is 206 Delegates and 51 Alternates totaling 257 to the 2020 10th Congressional District Convention and to the Virginia State Democratic Convention, allocated as follows:
